DOLBY LABORATORIES, INC.

NOMINATING AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

(As amended and restated February 5, 2019)

PURPOSE

The principal purposes of the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors of Dolby Laboratories, Inc. are to ensure that the Board is properly constituted to meet its fiduciary obligations to Dolby and its stockholders and that Dolby follows appropriate governance standards. To carry out these purposes, the Nominating and Governance Committee shall (1) assist the Board in identifying prospective director nominees and recommend to the Board the director nominees for each annual meeting of stockholders; (2) develop and recommend to the Board governance principles applicable to Dolby; (3) oversee the evaluation of the Board and management; (4) recommend to the Board members for each Board committee; and (5) recommend to the Board the form and amount of director compensation.

MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

The Nominating and Governance Committee shall consist of no fewer than two members. The members of the Nominating and Governance Committee shall not have a relationship with Dolby or its affiliates that may interfere with the exercise of their independence, and shall otherwise meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.

The members of the Nominating and Governance Committee shall be appointed by the Board. Nominating and Governance Committee members may be replaced by the Board.

AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- The Nominating and Governance Committee shall evaluate the current composition, organization and governance of the Board and its committees, determine future requirements and make recommendations to the Board for approval.

- The Nominating and Governance Committee shall recommend for approval by the Board on a periodic basis desired qualifications and characteristics for Board membership and conduct searches for potential Board members with corresponding attributes. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall evaluate and propose nominees for election to the Board as required. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall consider stockholder nominees for election to the Board. In performing these tasks the Nominating and Governance Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates and shall have the sole authority to approve the search firm’s fees and other retention terms.
• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall review and concur in the election of any employee director and any Section 16 officer to outside, for-profit Board seats.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall review periodically Dolby’s corporate governance guidelines approved by the Board to ensure that they remain relevant and are being complied with, and recommend changes to the Board as necessary.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall review governance-related stockholder proposals and recommend Board responses.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall oversee the Board performance evaluation process, as well as the evaluation of each Board member’s performance and the performance of each Board committee, including, if appropriate, conducting surveys of director observations, suggestions and preferences.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall evaluate and make recommendations to the Board concerning the appointment of directors to Board committees and the selection of Board committee chairs.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall evaluate the performance of and, if appropriate, recommend termination of particular directors in accordance with the Board’s governance principles, for cause or for other appropriate reasons.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall review on a periodic basis director compensation and benefits and, if appropriate, recommend any proposed changes in the type or amount of compensation for directors to the Board for approval.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall oversee Dolby’s succession planning process, including succession planning for the position of CEO and selected senior officers, and shall make an annual report to the Board on succession planning.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall make regular reports to the Board.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall annually review its own performance.

• The Nominating and Governance Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any compensation consultant to be used by Dolby to assist in the evaluation of director compensation and shall have sole authority to approve the consultant’s fees and other retention terms. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall also have authority to obtain advice and assistance from internal or external legal or other advisors.

- The Nominating and Governance Committee will set its own schedule of meetings, with the option of holding additional meetings at such times as it deems necessary. The Nominating and Governance Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

- The Nominating and Governance Committee shall perform such other functions as assigned by law, Dolby’s certificate of incorporation or bylaws or the Board.
